Dated: 27 -12-2008.

Read the following:-

1. From the DG, ACB,Lr.Rc.No.202/RCA-HRG/2005-S3, Dated 21.12.2006
2. Representation dated NIL of Sri V.Srinivas Goud, former Municipal Commissioner, Alwal Municipality.
3. Govt. Memo No.23850/Vig.IV.1/2005-9, dated 7.11.2007.
4. From the DG, ACB,Lr.Rc.No.202/RCA-HRG/2005, Dated 19.09.2008

ORDER:

In the references read above, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad reported that Sri V.Srinivas Goud, former Municipal Commissioner, Alwal Municipality, R.R. District is possessing disproportionate assets to the known sources of his legal income to the extent of Rs.39,26,973-00 and recommended to accord sanction for prosecution of the said officer and also to authorize the Investigating Authority of the Bureau to file application in the Court of Special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases, Hyderabad for attachment of the properties of Sri V.Srinivas Goud, former Municipal Commissioner, Alwal Municipality, R.R. District. He has also requested for initiation of departmental action for violation of conduct Rules, 1964 for not obtaining prior permission for acquiring the disposal of the properties etc.,

2. Sri V.Srinivas Goud in his representation in the reference 2nd read above has submitted that the ACB has not considered his income/assets or expenditure properly. While furnishing details of his and his wife income, assets and expenditure and he has stated that he is not in possession of disproportionate assets and requested to drop action against him. The representation of Sri V.Srinivas Goud was referred to Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad for his further report vide reference 4th read above.

3. The Government have carefully examined the proposal of Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad and observe that the Accused Officer has submitted Annual Property Returns covering all the assets to the competent authority from time to time duly explaining the sources of income for acquisition of the assets. The Accused Officer and his wife are Income Tax Assessors since 1997-98 and the properties mentioned by the ACB are covered in the Income Tax Returns. It is also observed that the ACB authorities have not considered the agriculture income of Rs.9,35,000/- of the individual, agriculture income of Rs.1,60,000/- Salary & Consultancy income of Rs.4,76,865/- and business income of Rs.3,06,495/- of his wife and the NRI income of Rs.10,85,370/- received by his wife. Government have also taken into consideration his sincerity and meritorious record and therefore considered that it is not a fit case to prosecute the officer on the allegation of possessing assets disproportionate to the known sources of his legal income and accordingly decided to drop further action.

4. Government, accordingly drop all further action against Sri V.Srinivas Goud, former Municipal Commissioner, Alwal Municipality, R.R. District on the allegation of possession of assets disproportionate to the known sources of his legal income.
